Financial Secretariat,

Bangalore, 7th January 192..

Dear Mr. Matthan,

Your D.O. of date regarding grant of two Duty Allowances to the same Secretariat officer. I know - that the proposal is not to give an acting allowance but only the Duty Allowance. You will see that the Article 99, C.S.R., refers to 'salary' and the Duty Allowance comes under the category of 'salary'. That two Duty -- Allowances in the circumstances of the kind under consideration are not allowed will also be evident from Article 169 A., C.S.R. I have, of course, presumed that there are no "special reasons" for giving allowances attached to both the appointments. It will be seen that the general rule is to allow an officer holding two or more appointments to draw the highest allowance attached to any one of the appointments. In this particular case the higher rate of Rs.75 is not attached to the office but is allowed when the office is held by an Assistant Commissioner of the status to be ranked as an Under Secretary in the Secretariat.

Yours sincerely,

M. A. Venkatarao
